George Foster Freezes Yankees' Best Efforts

BOSTON, May 8.—G. Foster's great twirling gave the Red Sox a victory over the Yankees yesterday, 2 to 0. The visitors got only four hits off the young twirler.

Checker Champion Here; Will Meet All Comers

Newell S. Banks, checker champion of the United States, is in Washington and will meet all comers simultaneously at the Capital City Chess and Checker Club, New York avenue and thirteenth street, tomorrow night. Last year he could not lose a game here, though he played a blindfold six-board game.

Cardinals, 9 to 1.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 8.—By merciless hammering all the Reds' twirlers, the Cardinals ran away with yesterday's game by a 9 to 1 score. Perfect was in superb condition. The score:

R. H. E.
Cardinals 000 010 000—9 13 0
Reds 000 000 000—1 5 1
Batteries—Reds, Yungling, Egan, Adams and Gonzales; Cardinals, Pettit and Snyder.

Drop Fitzsimmons.

DETROIT, Mich., May 8.—The Detroit club has released Tom Fitzsimmons, twirler to Wichita, in the Western league. He had a good record with Spokane last year, but needs more experience.

MINCE PIE

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING.

By "BUGS" BAER.

Last week Danny Moeller smashed a limousine and a triple. Yesterday he smashed his shoulder and three hits. Griff has refused to take out an accident policy on the lad.

Charity may begin at home, but charity does not begin at home plate, according to Ump Dineen. Stops there.

It takes Ty Cobb all season to hit .400. Why, Dan Moeller can hit that in one game.

RABID RUDOLPH SAYS—

"WELL, THE TEAM CAME UP FROM BEHIND AND DEFEATED A LOT OF CRITICS YESTERDAY."

Congress will adjourn July 10. Poor judgment. St. Looney is playing here then. Should adjourn today and lamp the Athletics.

The Federals will make their official league baseball less lively. What life they take out of the ball should be injected in for Cantillon's Minneapolis octogenarians.

Triple plays are getting almost as numerous as Mexican generals.

Fans think that Clark Griffith showed excellent judgment in allowing Connie Mack to allow Chief Bender to remain in the box. All of which sounds like another triple play, but isn't.

That stuff doesn't make any sense, does it?

Roster is chased out of the park for making too much noise. So be careful, or Jim O'Day will get you. If you want to stick the full nine innings, observe the following code of ethics:

When Johnson fans the side—Smile usually.

When Gandil crashes a triple—Yawn nonchalantly.

If Foster spears a liner—Applaud softly with an air of deepest latitude.

Milan steals home—Control your camera and appear slightly interested, but not much.

Home team makes a triple play—Allow the lower maxillary to sag a trifle, and look blasé.

Buffalos Shut Out.

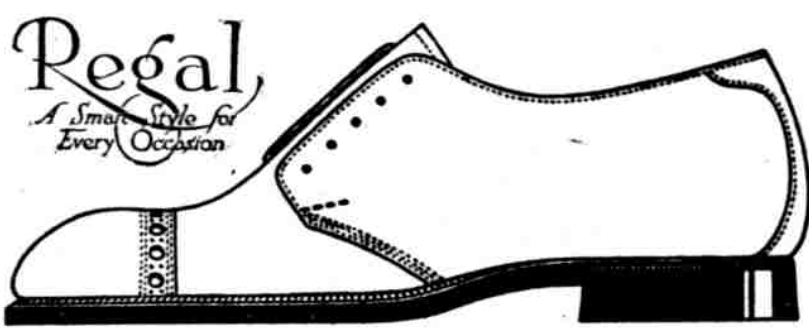

KANSAS CITY, May 8.—Gene Packard shut out the Buffalo Federals when he occupied the mound for the Packers. Score 10 to 0. Kenworthy made two circuit clouts.

R. H. E.
Kansas City 010 030 225—15 2
Buffalo 000 000 000—0 7 2
Batteries—Moore and Blair; Packard and Easterly. Umpires—Messrs. Bush and Mannassau.

Pittsburgh Hitting.

ST. LOUIS, May 8.—Oaks' home run and three triples by Lewis helped the Smokes to win from the St. Louis Federals by 15 to 7. The score:

R. H. E.
Pittsburgh 033 043 200—15 15 2
St. Louis 000 022 300—7 13 8
Batteries—Carnitz, Barger, and Berry; Mehler and Simons. Umpires—Messrs. Kane and Kusack.

Robins, 6 to 5.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—Pfeffer's good work in stopping the Phillies' batting rally enabled the Robins to win yesterday's game, 6 to 5. The score:

R. H. E.
Robins 000 002 000—6 13 3
Phillies 100 101 020—5 11 1
Batteries—Robins, Altchison, Pfeffer, and Miller; Fischer, Phillies, Mayer and Kilmer.

No Score in Fifth.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 8.—Neither Indianapolis nor Baltimore were able to score when rain stopped their game in the fifth inning.

Stupid Base Running Loses for Naplanders

CLEVELAND, May 8.—It was largely by their stupid base running that the Naps lost to the Brownies yesterday, though Earl Hamilton's pitching was of a high order. Several times the home team was in a position to score only to have runners snuffed out on the paths. The score—

R. H. E.
Brownies 010 000 001—2 6 3
Naps 000 000 000—0 7 2
Batteries—Brownies, Hamilton; and Agnew; Naps, Mitchell and O'Neill.

Giants Rally and Win From Braves, 7 to 6

NEW YORK, May 8.—Just when the Braves seemed sure to win, the Giants fell upon Crutcher in the eighth and hammered over enough runs to change the result. The score:

R. H. E.
Braves 200 200 010—6 9 1
Giants 100 001 147—7 15 1
Batteries—Braves, Crutcher, Rudolph, and Gowdy; Giants, Marquard, Fromme, Mathewson, and Meyers, McLean.

Pirates' Fast Pace Too Much for Chicago

PITTSBURGH, May 8.—The Pirates' fast pace was too much for the Cubs here yesterday, and the league leaders romped away with a 7-to-1 victory. Humphries was driven from the mound in the sixth. The score—

R. H. E.
Cubs 100 000 000—1 6 3
Pirates 020 004 100—7 12 2
Batteries—Cubs, Humphries, Zabel, and Archer; Pirates, Cooper and Gibson.
